Upcoming Guest Artists

October: Phillip Glashoff

A Solano County icon, Phillip Glashoff continues the tradition of the lifestyle he was born to on his northern California ranch. Phillip's love of the land is evident in the herds of cattle and horses that graze his land. His real passion also dots the landscape of the ranch, herds of steel sculpted cattle, giant banjos, and archways made of street signs.

November: Stefan Savides

Originally from Vacaville, Stefan is an internationally recognized artist who produces dimensional still lifes of unmatched beauty. His award-winning creations are so anatomically correct, the world's top carvers and artists seek his works for reference. To learn more about Stefan you can visit his website: aviandesign.com

We want to hear from you

VAL is fortunate to have such a wonderful gallery to showcase artists and their artwork. We can also use the space for other opportunities such as the group that meets on Saturdays to paint. We would like to hear ideas and suggestions you might have to make the gallery and the League better. We also need everyone's help to make this the best art group around. Please send ideas via e-mail to the gallery.

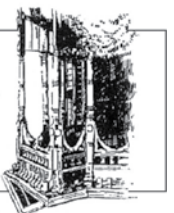

New e-letter

The newsletter is monthly now and is available via e-mail and the web site. We are trying to get as many members to switch from the paper version as possible. The e-letter will be faster and save the league a lot of money. So if you would like to make the switch send an e-mail to the gallery (vacavilleartgallery@castles.com) and let us know.
